10.1 All invoices shall be raised and paid in accordance with the Payment Terms unless otherwise agreed in writing and detailed in an appropriate payment profile.

10.2 In the absence of any Payment Terms, Compliance365 shall issue invoices for payment 14 days after the Contract Date.

10.3 All invoices shall be payable by the Customer or third party acting on behalf of the client within thirty 30 days of issue.

10.4 Time for payment of the Charges shall be of the essence.

10.5 No payment shall be deemed to have been received until Compliance365 has received cleared funds.

10.6 All outstanding payments due to Compliance365 under the Contract shall become due immediately on its termination despite any other provision.

10.7 The Customer shall make all payments due under the Contract, in full without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise unless the Customer has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid by Compliance365 to the Customer.

10.8 The Customer shall be liable to pay interest on any outstanding amount at 2.5% per calendar month to Compliance365 on any such sum from the due date for payment, accruing on a daily basis until payment is received whether before or after any judgment.

10.9 Reasonable expenses will be added at the time of invoicing, which may include but are not restricted to accommodation and meals, mileage, travel costs and parking.

10.10 Compliance365 reserves the right to charge the Customer on a time and materials basis (with reference to its current hourly rate, details of which are communicated to the Customer from time to time) if:

10.10.1 A service which forms part of the Contract is cancelled, postponed or re-arranged on less than one (1) days' notice; a 30% cancellation fee will apply for none started works with a minimum charge of £30;

10.10.2 If administrative resources have been utilised to attempt to schedule a survey, prior to cancellation, a 15% booking fee may apply;

10.10.3 A service which forms part of the Contract is performed outside the normal working hours of Monday to Friday 8:30am to 5pm or any agreed project plan;

10.10.4 Compliance365 cannot gain access to the relevant data, Property and/or the necessary personnel;

10.10.5 Any necessary services required are different to the services agreed as part of the Contract.

10.10.6 All pricing assumes a suitable floorplan will be made available for EPCs and DECS, where not provided additional charges may be incurred

10.11 Compliance365 reserve the right to suspend performance of the Contract until such a time that any outstanding invoices have been settled. For the avoidance of doubt, during the suspension of the Contract:

10.11.1 No Goods and/or Services may be supplied;

10.11.2 Compliance365 shall have no obligation to comply with any Service Levels.

10.12 Relodgement Charges Should the Customer wish to change the address to something they didn't specify at order stage then this will incur a relodgement cost and will be charged a relodgement cost and an administration cost of £30.00.

11. LIABILITY

11.1 The following provisions set out the entire financial liability of Compliance365 (including any liability for the acts or omissions of its employees, agents and sub-contractors) to the Customer in respect of:

11.1.1 Any breach of the Contract;

11.1.2 Any misrepresentation, statement or tortious act or omission including negligence arising under or in connection with the Contract.

11.2 Nothing in these terms and conditions excludes or limits the liability of Compliance365:

11.2.1 for death or injury caused by Compliance365's negligence;

11.2.2 For any matter which it would be illegal for Compliance365 to exclude or attempt to exclude its liability;

11.3 Subject to condition 11.1 and condition 11.2, in respect of the Contract:

11.3.1 Compliance365's total liability for any claim in Contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), misrepresentation restitution or otherwise, arising in connection with the performance or contemplated performance of the Contract shall be limited to a sum of money which is equal to ten (10) times the Charges actually paid to Compliance365 under the Contract or one hundred thousand pounds (£100,000) whichever the lower, save that this limitation shall not apply to any claim made the insurances referred to condition 11.4;

11.3.2 Compliance365 shall not be liable to the Customer for loss of profit, loss of business, or depletion of goodwill in each case whether direct, indirect or consequential, or any claims for consequential compensation whatsoever (howsoever caused) which arise out of or in connection with any element of the Contract.

11.4 Compliance365 shall effect and maintain with a reputable insurance company:

11.4.1 a policy of professional indemnity insurance, providing no less than five million pounds (£5,000,000) indemnity cover in aggregate throughout the year for matters relating to the negligent provision of professional services

11.4.2 a policy of professional indemnity insurance, providing no less than two million pounds (£2,000,000) indemnity cover in aggregate throughout

11.4.3 a policy of public liability insurance providing no less than ten million pounds (£10,000,000)

11.5 Compliance365 shall produce to the Customer on a copy of any insurance (or broker) certificate confirming that the insurances referred to in conditions 11.4 have been obtained.

11.6 where Compliance365 require additional information to facilitate the issue of certificates and or reports (e.g. Display Energy Certificates) the responsibility rests entirely on the customer to provide this information.

11.6.1 Failure to provide the necessary information and subsequent inability to issue a certificate is not accepted as a valid reason for non-payment

12. EARLY TERMINATION

12.1 Notwithstanding anything else contained herein, the Contract may be terminated by Compliance365 with immediate effect if the Customer:

12.1.1 is in material breach of the Contract Terms and conditions and the breach is not capable of remedy; or 12.1.2 is in material breach of the Contract and the breach is capable of remedy and that other party shall have failed to remedy that breach within thirty (30) days of notice, specifying the breach and requiring its remedy.

12.1.3 shall have a receiver, liquidator or administrative receiver appointed over it or over any part of its undertaking or assets or shall pass a resolution for winding-up (otherwise than for the purpose of a bona fide scheme of solvent amalgamation or reconstruction) or a court of competent jurisdiction shall make an order to that effect or if the other party shall become subject to an administration order or shall enter into any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or shall cease or threaten to cease to carry on business.

13. CONSEQUENCES OF TERMINATION

13.1 Any termination of the Contract (howsoever occasioned) shall not affect any accrued rights, liabilities or outstanding invoices for goods and services already provided of either party hereunder or at law, nor shall it affect the coming into force or the continuance in force of any provision hereof which is expressly or by implication intended to come into or to continue in force on or after such termination.

13.2 Condition 13.1 above, and any condition which is stipulated to do so, shall survive termination of the Contract.

14. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

14.1 In the event of any bona fide dispute or difference arising between the parties in connection with the Contract (excluding any dispute relating to non-payment of the Charges, for whatever reason), the parties shall attempt to resolve such dispute or difference in good faith and without recourse to legal proceedings.

14.2 If the parties are unable to resolve such dispute or difference within fifteen (15) days of initial discussions between the parties taking place, either party may request the other in writing that the matter be referred to senior representatives of the parties with authority to secure the dispute within thirty (30) days of the written request to do so.

14.3 If the dispute or difference is not resolved as a result of a meeting of the senior representatives of the parties pursuant to condition 14.2 above, or if no meeting of the senior representatives occurs within the prescribed time periods set out in that condition, either party may request the centre for dispute resolution ("CEDR") in writing to appoint an independent expert. Where specifically agreed by both parties, an alternative resolution will be to initiate court proceedings or adjudication under TECSA (Technology and Construction Solicitors' Association) rules, or equivalent.

14.4 If either party so requests CEDR to appoint an independent expert, such party must instruct CEDR to ensure that the expert:

14.4.1 acts as an expert and not an arbitrator;

14.4.2 Affords the parties the opportunity within reasonable time limits to make representations indemnity cover per claim;

14.4.3 a policy of employers liability insurance providing no less than ten million pounds (£10,000,000) indemnity cover per claim.

14.6 The expert determination is to be conclusive and binding on the parties except where there is fraud or a manifest error or on matter of law.

14.5 The fees and expenses of the expert including the cost of his nomination shall be borne equally by the parties who shall bear their own costs as to the submission and determination of the dispute or difference by the expert, save as where otherwise directed by the expert

15. FORCE MAJEURE

15.1 If a party (the "Affected Party") is prevented, hindered or delayed from or in performing any of its obligations under the Contract by a Force Majeure Event:

15.1.1 The Affected Party's obligations under the Contract are suspended while the Force Majeure Event continues and to the extent that it is prevented, hindered or delayed;

15.1.2 as soon as reasonably possible after the start of the Force Majeure Event, the Affected Party shall notify the other party (the "Non-Affected Party") in writing of the Force Majeure Event, the date on which the Force Majeure Event started and the effects of the Force Majeure Event on its ability to perform its obligations under the Contract;

15.2 The Affected Party shall:

15.2.1 Make all reasonable efforts to mitigate the effects of the Force Majeure Event on the performance of its obligations under the Contract; and 15.2.2 as soon as reasonably possible after the Force Majeure Event, the Affected Party shall notify the other party in writing that the Force Majeure Event has ended and resume performance of its obligations under the Contract.

15.3 If the Force Majeure Event continues for more than three (3) months starting on the day the Force Majeure Event starts, Compliance365 may terminate the Contract by giving not less than thirty (30) days' notice in writing to the Customer.

16. CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY

16.1 Each party shall treat as confidential all information obtained from the other pursuant to the Contract and shall not divulge such information to any person (except to such party's own employees and then only to those employees who need commencement of the negotiations leading to the Contract, which is already public knowledge or becomes so at a future date (otherwise than as a result of a breach of this condition 16) or which is trivial or obvious. Each party shall ensure that its employees are aware of and comply with the provision of this condition 16.

16.2 If Compliance365 shall appoint any sub-Contractor Compliance365 may disclose confidential information to such sub-contractor subject to such sub-Contractor giving the Customer an undertaking in similar terms to the provisions of this clause

13. The foregoing obligations as to confidentiality shall survive any termination of the Contract.

17. ASSIGNMENT AND SUB- CONTRACTING

17.1 The Customer shall not assign or deal in any way with all or any part of the benefit of, or its rights or benefits under the Contract without the prior written consent of Compliance365.

17.2 Compliance365 shall have the right to sub-contract the performance of any Contract to any third party.

18 NOTICES

18.1 Any notice given by one party to the other under the Contract must be in writing and may be delivered personally or by pre-paid first class post and in the case of post will be deemed to have been given two (2) days after the date of posting. Notices shall be delivered or sent to the addresses of the parties on the first page of the Contract or to any other address notified in writing by one party to the other for the purpose of receiving notices after the date of the Contract. Each party may specify by notice to the other a particular individual or office holder to whom any notices served on it are to be addressed, in which case a notice shall not be validly given unless so addressed.

19. FURTHER

ASSURANCE

19.1 Either party shall at the request and cost of the other do or procure the doing of all such further acts and execute or procure the execution (as a deed or otherwise) of all such documents as may from time to time be necessary to give full effect to the Contract.

20. SEVERANCE

20.1 If any provision of the Contract is found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of the Contract which shall remain in full force and effect.

20.2 If any provision of the Contract is so found to be invalid or unenforceable but would cease to be invalid or unenforceable if some part of the provision were deleted, the provision in question shall apply with such modification as may be necessary to make it valid and enforceable.

21. THIRD PARTIES

21.1 A person who is not party to the Contract shall have no rights under the Contracts (rights of third parties) act 1999 to enforce any term of the Contract. This condition does not affect any right or remedy of any person which exists or is available otherwise than pursuant to that act.

22. COSTS

22.1 Each party shall bear its own costs and expenses incurred in relation to the negotiation, preparation, execution and implementation of the Contract and all other documents to be completed in accordance with its provisions.

23. NO PARTNERSHIP OR AGENCY

23.1 Nothing in the Contract is intended to create a partnership or joint venture or legal relationship of any kind that would impose liability upon one party for the act or failure to act of the other party between the parties, or to authorise either party to act as agent for the other. Save where expressly stated in the Contract, neither party shall have authority to make representations, act in the name or on behalf of or otherwise to bind the other.

24. WAIVER AND CUMULATIVE REMEDIES

24.1 The rights and remedies provided by the Contract may be waived only in writing and specifically, and any failure to exercise or any delay in exercising a right or remedy by either party shall not constitute a waiver of that right or remedy or of any other rights or remedies. A waiver of any breach of any of the terms of the Contract or of a default under the Contract shall not constitute a waiver of any other breach or default and shall not affect the other terms of the Contract.

24.2 The rights and remedies provided by the Contract are cumulative and (unless otherwise provided in the Contract) are not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided at law or in equity.

25. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

25.1 The Contract, together with the documents referred to in it, constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between the parties in respect of the matters dealt with in it and supersedes any previous agreement between the parties relating to such matters.

25.2 Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that in entering into the Contract it does not rely on, and shall have no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, warranty or understanding (whether negligently or innocently made) other than as expressly set out in the Contract. The only remedy available to either party in respect of any such statement, representation, warranty or understanding shall be for breach of Contract under the terms of the Contract.

25.3 Nothing in this condition 25 shall operate to exclude any liability for fraud.

26. TUPE

26.1 The Contract is not intended to operate as a relevant transfer for the purposes of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations ("TUPE"). In the event that any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction holds the Contract to be a relevant transfer for the purposes of TUPE, the Customer shall indemnify Compliance365 against all costs, claims, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) incurred by Compliance365 in connection with or as a result of any employee of the Customer bringing any claim against Compliance365 (whether such claim is brought in Contract, tort, under statute, pursuant to European law or otherwise) that their employment has transferred to Compliance365 pursuant to TUPE.

27. NON SOLICITATION

27.1 Neither the Customer nor Compliance365 shall during the term of the Contract offer, promise, solicit, employ or Contract (direct or through a third party Contractor) any employee of the other party who has been assigned to perform Services covered by the Contract. If the Customer or Compliance365 shall employ or Contract with any such person during the term or within twelve (12) months after the termination of the Contract, such party shall pay to the other party, within sixty (60) days, a fee equal to one hundred percent (100%) of such person's most recent annual compensation with the other party.

28. EXCLUSIVITY

28.1 Compliance365 shall have the right to perform the Contract with that level of exclusivity being detailed in the Work Order.

29. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

29.1 The Contract and any matter arising from or in connection with it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

29.2 Each party irrevocably agrees to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts over any claim or matter arising from or in connection with the Contract.
